Intro by Steve Cook

The featured items below highlight quite astounding news: a British MP officially reporting serious crimes, including murder at the highest levels and requesting investigation by the police.

This is all the more remarkable because suspicion of serious crimes has fallen even upon a serving Prime Minister.

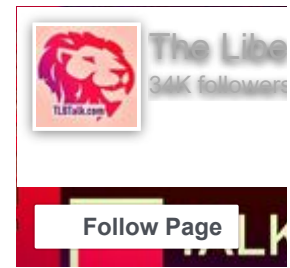

If you or I were reported to the police for allegedly having killed one or many people, the police would of course immediately investigate with considerable skill and dedication to verify whether the alleged murders had occurred and, if so, who precisely committed them.

In a just society that response would be forthcoming no matter who was the alleged perpetrator of the reported crime.

There is no reason on God's green Earth for the police not to investigate just because suspicion has fallen upon people in high positions.

Indeed, the key civilised and civilising principle of Liberty and Justice for all, whereby all person (all) are, without exemption, fear or favour subject to the same laws and bound by the same expectations of decent conduct, is at stake.

The more power or influence over others a person has, the more vital it is that he is bound by just laws because his power affords him wider opportunity to do harm.

That principle forms the very bedrock of a civilisation fit for honest human beings to live in and The People have a miserable time of it to the degree that that key principle is inhibited.

Societies sink into tyranny when privileged castes are considered above or exempt from just laws that enshrine good (ie pro-survival)) conduct and the way to end tyranny is to make all classes, castes, cliques, groups and individuals equally subject to just laws.

So we, The People, wait to see how the police respond. And by “the police” we mean their top brass for we are certain that Britain’s rank and file cops will do their jobs and serve The People with integrity if not actively prevented from so doing.

Will the brass turn a blind eye or will they act without fear or favour to bring all persons under the rule of just laws?

By their deeds we shall know them.

MP Andrew Bridgen has written to Sir Mark Rowley, Commissioner of the Metropolitan police asking for an urgent meeting with him and Metropolitan Police detectives to discuss serious issues that have come to light regarding the Covid 19 pandemic and vaccination programme. Andrew Bridgen informs Rowley that this is a matter of importance for the well being and safety of the British public and has added that “very disturbing new and damning news has recently come to light that will be revealed and discussed at the meeting.

Andrew Bridgen says that the COVID inquiry team had told him that if criminality is suspected then it is a matter for the police. As we know, and as Andrew Bridgen says “there is evidence of criminal activity at the highest levels of the UK Government, including British Prime Minister and his financial links to Moderna.” and this will be presented.

There are “very serious criminal offences” wrote in the letter, these include:

- Misconduct in public office.
- Mifefafance in public office.
- Manslaughter
- Gross Negligent Manslaughter
- Gross Corporate Manslaughter

As well as conspiracy to commit and aiding and abetting the aforementioned crimes.

Yes, we are sick of waiting for justice to be served on the genocidal politicians of this country, but surely Commissioner Mark Rowley can not ignore this? Thank you and the very best of luck to Andrew Bridgen and all those who are preparing to give evidence of to the Met. You have our continued support.

*The Liberty Beacon Project is now expanding at a near exponential rate, and for this we are grateful and excited! But we must also be practical. For 7 years we have not asked for any donations, and have built this project with our own funds as we grew. We are now experiencing ever increasing growing pains due to the large number of websites and projects we represent. So we have just installed donation buttons on our websites and ask that you consider this when you visit them. Nothing is too small. We thank you for all your support and your considerations ... We need something like that here. The only problem is big pharma calls the shots here. In a just world, many of them would be locked up, as well as many politicians. But don't hold your breath.
